FROM THE PRINCIPAL

VISIT FROM OUR NEW PRINCIPAL
On Tuesday Nicole Wood, our new Principal for Term 1 next year visited the school. She introduced herself to all the students and had time with teaching staff at our Staff Meeting and met our Educational Support Staff through the afternoon. Community Group members who were at the meeting were able to meet her as well. Nicole will be back on Friday for Assembly and would love to meet parents and families. She will also be attending our Christmas Concert on the Wednesday 17th December.

School VISIT to ST RICHARDS
On Monday our Preps visited St Richard Primary School and did fun activities with their Prep children. It was a lovely visit and we thank Bernie their Prep teacher for being so welcoming and making lovely gifts for us. (Photos in next weeks newsletter).

SCHOOL READINESS INFORMATION SESSION
On Wednesday 3rd December we held our Information night for parents of students attending our school next year. We had a wonderful turnout and a BIG thank you to Mrs Jody O’Callaghan for all her hard work in setting up and delivering valuable information. Thank you also to Liz from the Commonwealth Bank, Christine Heffernan and Stacey Fife from Community Group for talking about ways parents can be involved. Our school uniform was on display thanks to Mrs Melanie Farley. Thank you to Stacey Catlow for putting our ‘Showbags’ together for our new families.
